Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Thursday 15 Jul 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Mostly sunny and very warm Friday, northwest, far north cloudier.

This Evening and Tonight:
Dry with late sunny then long clear spells for most, perhaps a few fog patches in the early hours. However the northwest and the Isles will be cloudier with perhaps a little drizzle developing.

Friday:
Rather cloudy across the Northwest and Isles with patchy drizzle and a southwesterly breeze. Elsewhere dry with light winds and good spells of warm or very warm sunshine.

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Sunny and very warm in south and east over the weekend, the northwest and far north often cloudier with a little rain. Cloudy start Monday then sunshine returning.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.